

Conference 2018
Saturday 10th November 2018
Dumfries House, Cumnock

- 10:00am            Arrival, registration and refreshments
- 10:30am            Welcome, Andy McNabb, Southern Uplands Partnership
- 10:40am            Did we find the wildlife in Ayrshire?, Helen Embleton, Where's Wildlife in Ayrshire Officer, SWSEIC
- 11:05am            Clyde Marine Mammal Project, David Nairn, Clyde Porpoise c.i.c.
-
- 11:30am            Comfort break
- 11:40am            SBIF Review: Re-imagining our biological recording infrastructure, Rachel Tierney, Scottish Wildlife Trust
- 12:05pm            Buglife's Buzzing and B-Lines pollinator projects in Ayrshire, Suzanne Burgess, Buglife
- 12:30pm            Environmental work within the Dumfries House estate, TBC Dumfries House
-
- 12:40pm            Lunch
- 1:40pm            South of Scotland Golden Eagles Project Update, Rick Taylor, South Scotland Golden Eagle Project
- 2:05pm            Making recording easier: using online recording and mobile apps, Mark Pollitt, SWSEIC
- 2:30pm            Habitat health: what plant surveys can tell us about our peatlands, Daisy Whytock CEI
-
- 2:55pm            Tea/ Coffee Break
- 3:10pm            Wildlife Crime, Alan McDowall/ Graeme Gordon, Police Scotland
- 3:35pm            Ardeer and it's beetles, Bruce Philp
- 4:00pm            Legacy and future of recording in Ayrshire, Helen Embleton, Where's Wildlife in Ayrshire Officer
- 4:15pm            Closing remarks (including competition results), Andy McNabb, Southern Uplands Partnership
- 4:30pm            Conference Close

Booking your free place now at Eventbrite:

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/wheres-wildlife-in-ayrshire-end-of-project-conference-registration-50730578526>

SWSEIC is hosted by Southern Uplands Partnership

Contact:
Helen Embleton
Tel: 07850081513
Email: hembleton@swseic.org.uk